Located in the Heart of the NH Lake Region, Mt Cardigan rises out of the Shem Valley as a beacon for outdoor lovers. The area is a paradise for snowboarding, hiking, snow shelter building, sledding, back country skiing and other winter adventures. There are opportunities for day hikes past frozen waterfalls and ponds thru this 1200 acre reservation owned by the Appalachian Mountain Conference (AMC).

Cardigan Lodge, situated at the base of Mt Cardigan, features plenty of comfortable rooms, a large kitchen, dining room and common area with fireplace. A smaller group will be backpacking to the top of Mt Cardigan and will stay overnight in the High Cabin shelter just below the tree line.

This is a popular trip so make sure you register early! Limited spots!
